Tuesday Women Bible Study

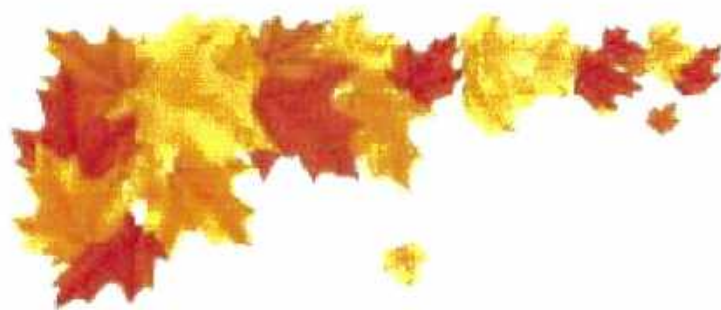

The Tuesday Women's Bible study has resumed on Tuesday mornings at 10 am in a virtual environment – that means via Zoom!

We began our fall program with a five-week video series from Max Lucado: "anxious for nothing; finding calm in a chaotic world." This study is based on Philippians 4:4-8. Lucado notes that with God as your helper and these verses as our guide, we can sleep better tonight and smile more tomorrow. We can all use some calm, and Lucado points us to tools for combating the onslaught of uncertainty, worry, and anxiety.

The study guide is required and women can pick up a copy from the church office, request a copy to be mailed to you by Myrna, or order it yourself from Amazon.

Tuesday Women is open to all women. We meet weekly for approximately 90 minutes, via Zoom. We invite you to join us!

Questions: contact Myrna Ulland at myrna.ulland@gmail.com

Family Sunday School

Each week, starting September 13, gather your family and check out our 10 minute videos focused on "Who is Jesus" at www.lwlcaz.org.

Following is a letter forwarded to us (with translation just below) from just one of the students in Southern Honduras who was sponsored (prior to Covid, when classes were still in session) by Lunches for Learning (L4L). Being able to receive daily school lunches generates a true optimism for the poorest kids living in this rural area and makes their time in school a place of happy memories and learning. L4L makes a real difference in the life of these students.

To: Living Water Lutheran Church, Scottsdale Arizona USA.

This is an affectionate greeting from Kevin Alejandro Aguilar Vasquez, a student at school ERSY Sagot Mejia from the community Jicaro Abaja, Moropocay, Nacaome Valle. I wrote this letter with great joy to tell you about how good I am doing in my classes overcoming all my difficulties to be better. I'd like to be a successful lawyer in the future.

I say thank you for the meal and vitamins we receive every day because many of us don't have the proper nutrition for our development. We hope to have you here for our graduation this year 2020.

We say good bye but very grateful for your cooperation with our school. Thanks for your support.

May God bless you greatly.
